Steppin' Out. . .

Taking that first step to the future may seem like you are taking a trip to another world. Last year's "ins" are this year's "outs." The '93-'94 school year, although it will soon be in the past, is our immediate future. Many educators, including our new superintendent Dr. Stuckwisch, believe that giving students many choices and experiences will maximize success as adults. Here at Hopewell High School, Ronald Harris and Donna Baum demonstrate that peer tutoring does make a difference (below). Other students, such as Allen Brobst, gain leadership skills in sports (on opposite page). Fine arts classes provide enjoyment and potential careers for those who participate, as shown by Randy Morris. Student experiences do not end when the final bell rings, however. Mike Gegenheimer's training for the local volunteer fire department includes repelling. Both during and after-school experiences help students step into the future.

Our Senior Year

Our senior year has come to an end, never coming back is so hard to comprehend.
We have strived through the years to get where we are,
by taking pride in ourselves we know we will go far.
So many new things to face tomorrow —
looking back on these twelve years brings us sorrow.
Saying good-bye to all our friends,
knowing it will never be this way again.
The memories we've shared are ours forever:
treasuring all of these years together;
the laughter, the fun, the tears we've shared;
the changes we have made in the lives we've led.
We all have changed and learned to give;
we've made mistakes and learned to live; we face our future with the will to succeed;
a little determination is all we need.
Seniors, do your best or at least give it a shot;
Remember, all it takes is effort on your part.

Future Changes For Juniors

For many Juniors this year was filled with changes and new xperiences. Some of them may have been forgotten, but many nore will remain with them throughout their lives.

The class of '95 had to make new goals and tough decisions hat would affect the rest of their life. Like many Juniors, Catrina lynn's goals were "to raise her GPA and go to a good college."

This year the Juniors matured and had to take responsibility for hemselves. Many Juniors got jobs and started driving this year. hey had to make time for homework and their part-time jobs.

Juniors did, however, have something to look forward to this ear. Many were excited about their ring ceremony and Prom.

"I believe the class of '95 will strive and succeed in everything hey do," says Stephanie Godfrey. I want to wish the class of '95 he best of luck in the future.

Junior Life

Even though for many Juniors this year was their oughest year throughout high school, they managed o overcome many obstacles and still have fun doing o. Socializing is a very important part of Junior life. Whether cheering for our team at games or showing ff new steps at a dance, Juniors love to be social.

For many Juniors, friendship is an important part of heir daily schedule. Juniors can be seen in the halls, etween classes, passing notes or lighting the hall with ew rumors. Juniors are always there for each other, vhether it is to give some good advice or just to listen o the latest gossip.

GRADUATION

On June 16, 1993 many dreams finally came true. The seniors' final moment to be center stage at Hopewell High had arrived. All of the requirements were fulfilled. It was time for graduation.

As they entered the field, tears filled the eyes of parents and graduates alike. Irene Sumner was one of those parents. She said "I felt all the years of frustration, anxiety, and pressure that built up. It was a very joyous occasion."

As for the future leaders of tomorrow, such as Jon Heard, it was a feeling that could never be reenacted. It was a very special moment, not only because of graduation, but because of a Supreme Court ruling outlawing prayer at graduation. The class had another obstacle to overcome. They could either comply with government regulations and find a legal way to express in religious freedom or break a long-held tradition at Hopewell. Well, they did both. Instead of a prayer, they had a silent time which was called "Memories." Shannon Royster felt this time was "A time to reflect." Tanya Smith felt "It was really cool the way we still stuck together as a class and pulled through."

To the future leaders, homemakers and decision-makers of tomorrow — Hopewell salutes you. Good luck.

A NIGHT OF SUSPENSE

The lights went down and the contestants filed across the stage to begin the Miss Hopewell High School Pageant. Miss HHS, under the careful direction of Mrs. Stacy Hipps, raised money for the Hopewell Junior Prom.

It all began with afternoon rehearsals. The girls would gather to practice speaking and walking for an audience. Sunny Holland summed it up best by saying, "It was really fun," and the others agreed, "I also got a new dress."

After hours of practice, the day came. What was to be the most important night of their junior life, the finalists were called: Frances Boller, Drika Carson, Michelle Bennett, Tyler Mahaney, Frances Zayas, April Wray, Chantelle Walker, Alisha Graham, Tina Hudson, and Patsy Mackey. The final competition was THE QUESTION. All the contestants were asked "What is your hope for the world of tomorrow?" "I don't believe I'm standing here!" was the first thought through the head of Frances Boller. After the interview, the finalists were announced. Second runner-up was Michelle Bennett, First runner-up and Miss Congeniality was Tyler Mahaney, and the new reigning Miss HHS was Drika Carson. After all was said and done, Drika was quoted as saying, "You have to be confident. Don't doubt yourself."

Together Forever

THIS MAGIC MOMENT

May 15, 1993 was the most unforgettable night for Hopewell juniors and seniors. It was the night that every junior had awaited for months. That night, people normally dressed in jeans and T-shirts turned into Cinderellas and Prince Charmings with beautiful gowns and tuxedos.

The prom was held at the Fort Lee Officers' Club. For the class of 1993 it was one of the last nights together before graduation, truly one of the "magic moments" of high school.

As the night progressed, prom-goers took formal and candid pictures. Most enjoyed the evening on the dance floor, thanks to the band Beat the Clock. Shortly after 10:00 P.M., the seniors cheered the crowning of Prom King and Queen Seth Dye and Nicole Harper.

After a night of wonderful moments, many students went to the After-Prom Party. Those who attended the two events will remember the magic moments of that night forever.

There's No Place Like . . .

Spirit Week started off with a blast: Monday was Hat/Camera Day, Tuesday was Election Day (and a holiday for students), Wednesday was College Day, Thursday was Seventies/Sixties Day, and Friday was the classic Blue and Gold Day.

On Thursday evening, hyped cheerleaders, football players, and spectators gathered on the soccer field for a revived tradition, the Blue Devil bonfire. The cheering and chanting continued for over an hour, both before and after the rival Prince George player's effigy was consumed by fire. Friday's pep rally was just as spirited. Seniors grabbed a last-minute victory in the Spirit Link Contest, although the Sophomore Class had led earlier in the week. The sophomores had their moment in the spotlight, however, by winning the Spirit Stick over the seniors.

The weather did not damper student enthusiasm at the Homecoming Parade or the football game with Prince George. The game was close — the score was tied 7-7 with only seconds left till halftime, although Prince George scored the winning touchdown of the game. Halftime highlights included a spirited performance by the Marching Band and the naming of the Homecoming Court: Second Runners-Up Patsy Mackay and Jeff Turner, First Runners-Up Kendra Jarvis and Charles Pettaway, and Homecoming King and Queen Jimmy Riddle and Chantel Walker (picture below).

The Hopewell Blue Devils' season was hard fought. The Varsity Football Team had to battle each of their opponents to the fullest extent, striving to gain a touchdown each time they received the ball. The coaches put their knowledge together to get the team prepared. The players worked long and hard to keep their spirits up in spite of numerous setbacks. The skills and knowledge gained this season will hopefully improve the Devils' performance next year.

The 1993 Varsity Softball season was well-fought. But the season ended with a 3-11 overall record; the JV team Was 3-9 overall. Veteran player Karen Bowen feels that with the teamwork and coaching experience from Mrs. Carlson, they can pull it together for the 1994 Season. Six people are coming back to the varsity team: Karen Bowen, Abbey Ellington, Lisa Fuzy, Joy Johnson, Lisa Fuzy, Kara Moore and April Wray. Not only are the players loyal to the team, but Coach Carlson is behind the team 100%. She feels that "regardless of team success, it was a pleasure to coach the girls and see their improvement." Judging from the school spirit displayed, the varsity and JV Softball teams were victorious regardless of the stats.

For the JV and Varsity Field Hockey teams this year th word 'lose' was not in their vocabulary. Winning a thun derous amount of games (11) and only losing 4, the lad Blue Devils showed what it takes to win. But making it t the Central District Tournament was not enough, wit the Varsity team winning the tournament and going t the Regional Tournament. The JV team also did ex ceptionally well, winning many games. Cristen Stale commented on both teams saying, "This year I think th field hockey teams worked more as a unit because we a had our eyes set on winning." Wendy Tomlinson als thought both teams did very well. "I think both team had a very successful year. It was a very good last year fo the seniors, and everyone will miss them."

For a second-year team, Hopewell Girls' Soccer did remarkably well, winning 7 out of 15 games. Defying the odds of questionable weather and calls, the players kept a bright outlook. "I thought we had a good season; it was much fun," commented Katie Anderson.

Striving against very competitive district and non-district teams, such as Atlee in the Ukrop's Fourth Annual Girls' Soccer Festival, everyone fought hard for win in a traditionally male sport. "The team worked hard and its positive attitude contributed to the success of the group," stated Coach Bennett.

Sandy Mueller summed up the season by saying, "It was great being on a team where everyone supported each other. I think we had a good season, but I hope next year will be even better." Maybe in the next World Cup in 1998, there will be a Hopewell player fighting for a win with the other U.S. Women's National Team players.

WHAT IS THE MOST IMPORTANT QUALITY YOU THINK A CHEERLEADER MUST HAVE?

There really is not one most important quality because a cheerleader has to have a lot of abilities such as a good attitude, humor, willing to keep up with responsibilities and definitely school spirit.

-Jennifer Tush

A cheerleader must have many qualities and not just one important one. She must be able to handle all of the hours involved, work and communicate with others, speak up for herself, be a nice role model, and have school spirit. Basically, to me, she should be able to make stressful and hard times into fun and joyful times.

-Annette Williams

I think that the most important quality of a cheerleader is confidence. Confidence in yourself is definitely necessary to feel comfortable in front of a crowd.

-Chantel Walker

A good attitude. during the long season you can get really stressed out and if you don't keep a positive attitude then there might be problems.

-April Wray

School Spirit!!!

-Drika Carson

WHAT IS YOUR MOST MEMORABLE MOMENT AS A HHS CHEERLEADER?

My most memorable moment was at a home Petersburg game when I dropped Amy Jackson and I caught her between my legs.

-Yolanda Mabry

My most memorable moment was probably before a football game while we were practicing. When I went to call a cheer called "Hopewell High" I said, "22, ready hit it!" 22 is my boyfriend's football jersey number. All of the JV Cheerleaders have teased me ever since.

-Rebecca Rivera

My most memorable moment is when we went to Fort Lee for a cheerleading competition. We only practiced for two weeks and we won First Place in Dance and First Runners-Up in Cheering.

-Tina DeBorba

My most memorable moment is when I was running down the field at a football game, and I tripped and rolled into the end zone.

-Sandy Mueller

Step With Spirit

Spirit Motivators

Last spring, cheerleading tryouts were held at Hopewell High School. Girls in the 10th, 11th, and 12th grade tried out for the Varsity squad, and girls in the 10th, 9th and rising 8th grades tried out for the Junior Varsity squad. In 1993, 52 girls competed to be one of the twenty-seven newly chosen cheerleaders for the 93-94 season.

After being chosen to represent Hopewell High School, the Hopewell High School Cheerleaders spent numerous hours in preparation for the sports events that they support. Both squads attended cheerleading camp in August, which was held here at the high school, for a whole week. The girls learned new cheers, chants and dances. The girls also learned the proper way to perform stunts and formations.

At every football and basketball game, the cheerleaders led the crowds in their displays of Blue Devil support. Beyond this obvious aspect of cheerleading, members of the squad involved themselves with many varied activities. Signs were painted and displayed as often as the various sports events occurred. Buttons, ribbons, and frozen fruit bars were sold to supplement the purchases of various items for the squads. Pep Rallies were held as the cheerleaders encouraged support from the student body and faculty. This year the cheerleaders even helped rekindle the old tradition of the Homecoming Bonfire.

Mrs. Patti Parker, this year both J.V. and Varsity coach, also had a number of responsibilities which were important to the cheering squad. As coach, she attended all practices and assisted with deciding on uniforms, sign painting, and transporting of the squads to away games. Needless to say, Mrs. Parker contributed many hours to the betterment of the squads.

Cheering was a rewarding experience for those members on the squads, but the fun time did not go without work. To be successful as a squad, great effort was made by each member.

RUNNING INTO THE FUTURE

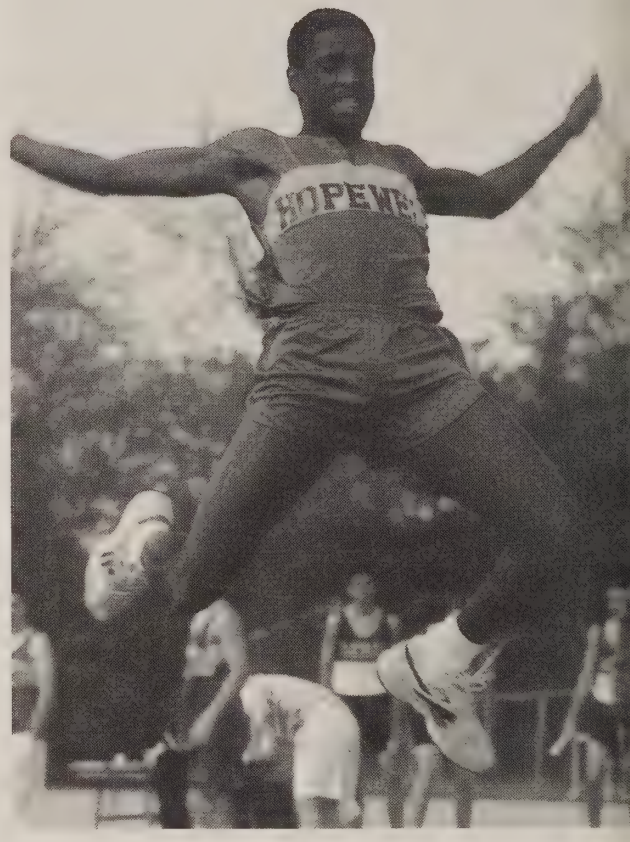
TRACK

"Are you trying out for the track team?"
"Track! Are you crazy? Too much running and sweating!"

To many students, running and sweating immediately comes to mind when the word 'track' is mentioned. However, track is more than that. The teamwork involved can also be a lot of fun. Events such as the 100-meter and 200-meter dash test speed; the long-jump and triple-jump test agility; the discus and shot-put test strength, and the mile-runs test endurance. The competition gets especially intense when three schools participate in a meet.

This year the boys' team finished 4th in the district with two wins and four losses; the girls' team finished fifth with the same number of wins and losses. All competitors showed that Blue Devil spirit and finished with heads held high.

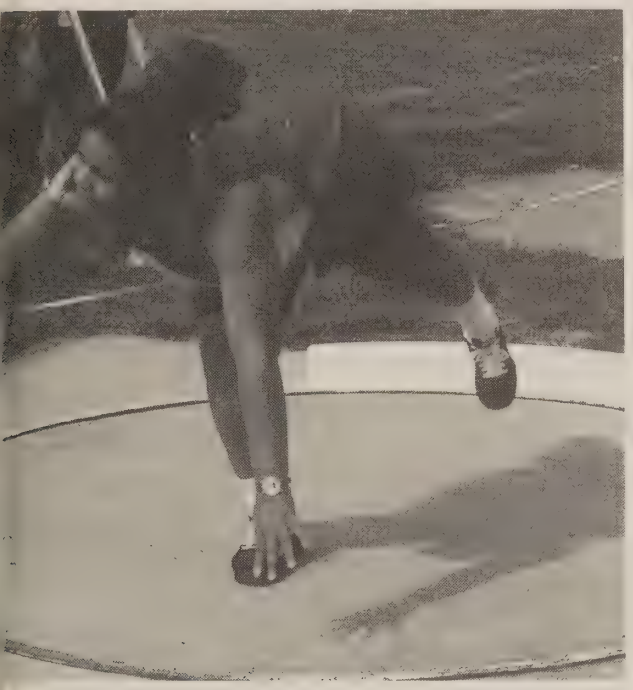
-DeShouna Taylor



Chris Taylor throws himself into the task easily, but he tries to make look hard as he does the triple-jump.

In the high-jump Chris Williams just clears the bar during practice.

Lashawna Allen concentrates to throw successfully in the shot-put.



Lakeisha Bradley demonstrates good balance while releasing the shot-put.

Tonya Coleman stretches out to make sure she clears the hurdles.

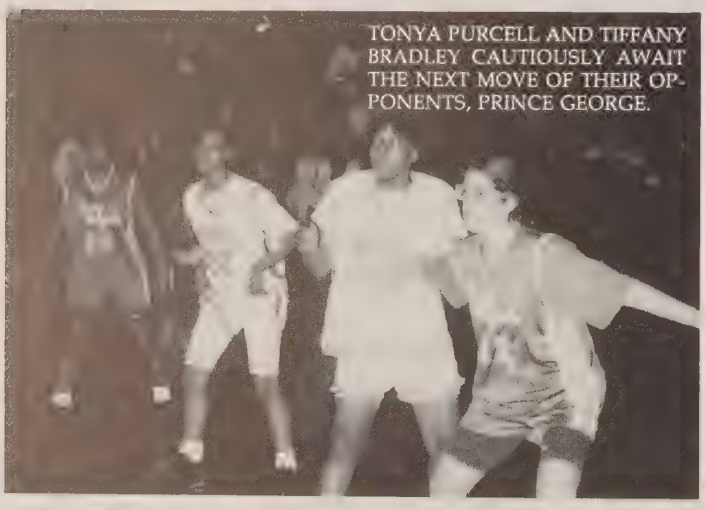
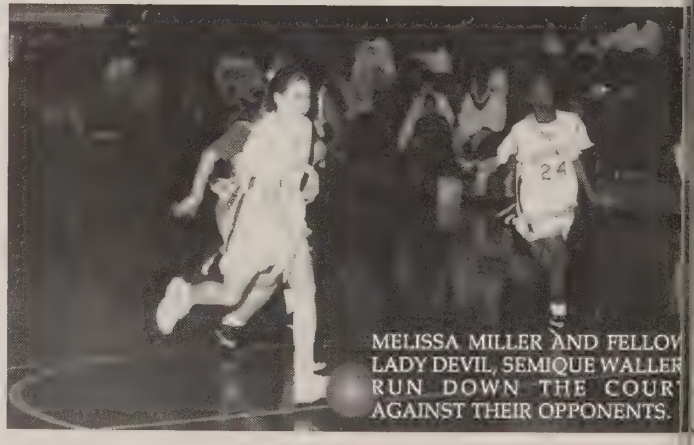
Hoop It Up with Girls' B-Ball

TIFFANY BRADLEY RUSHES DOWN THE COURT IN A GAME AGAINST PRINCE GEORGE TO MAKE A BASKET.



TONYA PURCELL AND TIFFANY BRADLEY CAUTIOUSLY AWAIT THE NEXT MOVE OF THEIR OPPONENTS, PRINCE GEORGE.



MELISSA MILLER AND FELLOW LADY DEVIL, SEMIQUE WALLER RUN DOWN THE COURT AGAINST THEIR OPPONENTS.

ya Purcell and Tiffany Bradley make a good ensive play against the opponent as she tries to e a basket.

Coach Walker Broner shows much frustration as a game of high hopes, expectations, and competition is underway.

After a hard season of games the Lady Devils came out ranked third overall in the district. It was a season of many victories, losses, and memories. When asked about her most memorable moment, Karlah Taylor replies "It was the game against Petersburg when I scored 20 points." Coach Broner also has a few memories to share including "The time we played Dinwiddie when we were ahead 27 to 2." Even a few laughs came about this year. Tanisha Grammer insists that her most embarrassing moment was the game when she couldn't get her balance and kept falling onto the floor. Even when times were bad and the Lady Devils stuck together and had a great season.

QUOTES FROM OUR WRESTLERS

HOW DOES IT FEEL TO BE AN UNDERCLASS WRESTLER?

It is hard at first because you don't know the moves, but the more matches you wrestle, the easier it becomes.

Daryl Sample

WHAT IS THE FUNNIEST THING THAT HAPPENED AT A MATCH?

The funniest thing that happened during the '93-'94 wrestling season occurred during our match against Manchester. Shawn Freeman, our varsity 189-pounder, did a move called a "butt drag" on his opponent. Although this move is legal, Shawn accidentally completed the move too deeply. His opponent from Manchester became angry and kicked the trash can near the mat so hard that it hit the bleachers. Shawn and our whole team died laughing. The guy from Manchester was disqualified and Shawn ended up winning the match anyway.

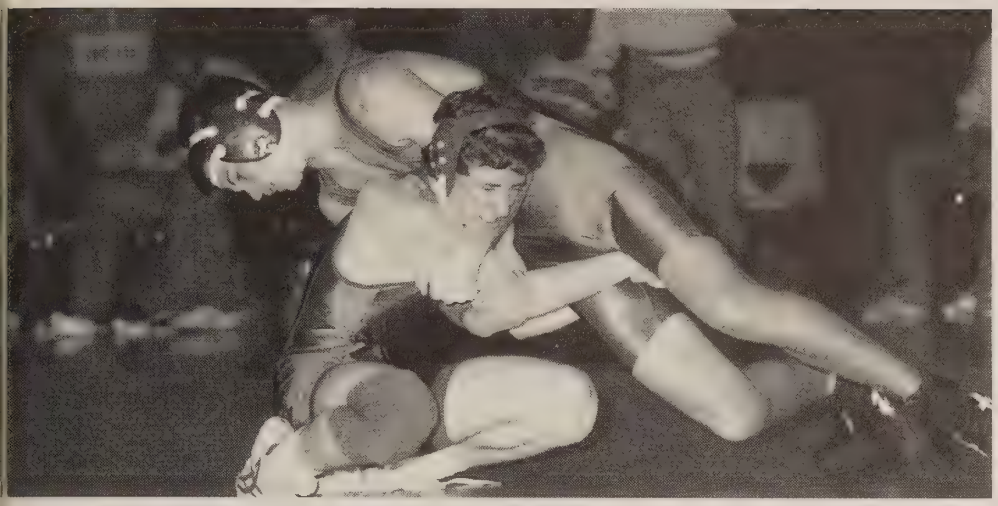
Napoleon Roux

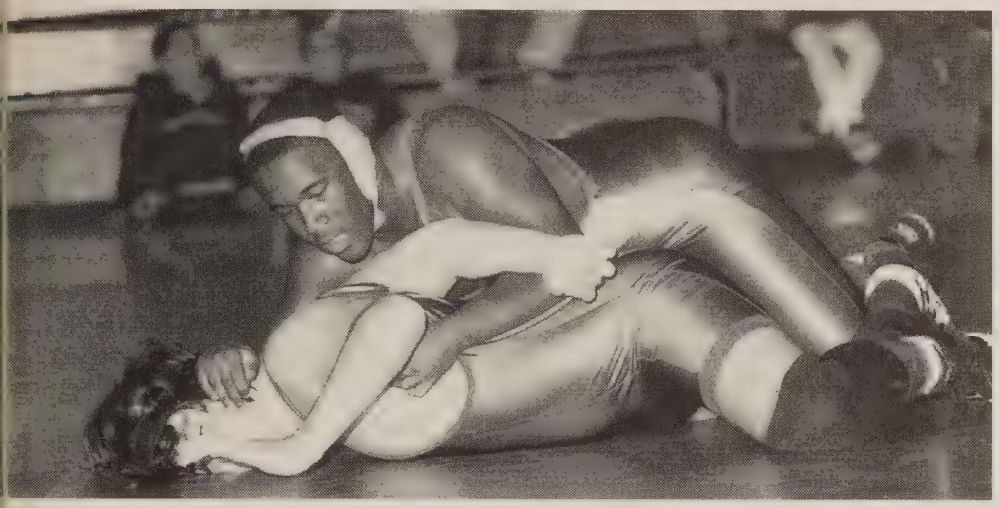
HOW DO YOU FEEL ABOUT THE COACH?

Coach Bennett does a good job. Despite the losses we had this year, we placed seven people in the regionals, including myself. If he keeps coaching and motivating us the way he does, by the time we are seniors we will be awesome.

Daryl Sample

Ryan Hoover does a cross-face to overpower his opponent.





Mac Mackela tries his wrist control technique on his adversary.

Shawn Freeman attempts a power half.

Coach Bennett studies his players' moves during the Prince George match.

The clubs at Hopewell High have been involved in many activities this year, exploring ideas that went beyond classroom experiences. Students went on various field trips and were involved in community projects.

Participation in clubs helps further your education by teaching you how to deal with people both inside and outside of school. Through clubs students developed individual interests and contributed to student life at Hopewell High. It was great to see so many club members step into action!

Your Medicine Shoppe
Pharmacist remembers when.

One prescription conflicts with another . . . Your allergy can cause a drug reaction . . . Foods don't mix with the drugs you take . . .

We never forget that a single Pill can cause a drug interaction. Even death. Not a dangerous narcotic or tranquilizer . . . Just a simple Pill.

The Time Has Come

THE TIME HAS COME FOR US TO GO
BUT WHILE WE'RE GONE WE'LL ALWAYS KNOW.
WE HAVE PARENTS LIKE YOU ON WHOM WE CAN DEPEND
THROUGH THE GOOD AND THE BAD, THE THICK AND THE THIN.
WE'LL BE BACK WHEN OUR LAUNDRY IS HIGH
WHILE YOU'RE WASHING WE CAN REMINESCE ON HOW TIME FLIES.
WE CAN THINK BACK TO OUR YOUNGER DAYS
FROM OUR DANCE PRACTICE TO OUR FIRST GRADE PLAYS.
THEN TO HIGH SCHOOL WHERE DID THE TIME GO
WE ALWAYS THOUGHT IT WOULD GO BY SO SLOW.
THE TIME HAS COME FOR US TO DEPART
WITH EXCITEMENT, JOY, AND FEAR IN OUR HEARTS.
BEFORE WE GO WE'D LIKE TO SAY
WE LOVE YOU AND THANKS FOR MAKING US WHAT WE ARE TODAY.

— DAKITA BAILEY

CONGRATS

TINA!

Congratulations to our daughter, Tina Marie Hudson, on her graduation. She had a rough time making it into this world, but she has come a long way since then, and has made us very proud of her. Tina, we hope you will continue your education after graduation so you can fulfill all your hopes and dreams in life. Continue to serve the Lord, Tina, and follow the golden rule in life — "DO UNTO OTHERS AS YOU WOULD HAVE THEM DO UNTO YOU" — and life will be good to you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

In Memory Of . . .

The time has come to a halt,
Everything around us is grim.
Wishing you didn't have to go,
Now our sun shines a little dim.
People are in shock,
No one can believe this occurred.
Wishing you were with us today,
To let you hear the singing of birds.
To let you drive down the street
one last time,
To let you shoot that ball into the net.
To let me slap you "Five" and say, "Good game,"
So all of the grief wouldn't have to be set.
We all miss you so much,
But we know you're in a better place.
No one can hurt you, no one can bother you,
You can now take things at your own pace.
Till the day we all see you again,
This town will be covered with a dense fog.
But we'll never forget you for the rest of our lives.
We love you . . . Peanut and Frog.

Steppin' into Style

Gerald Evans stands in his B-Boy showing off Polo and the New Jordon's.

We have many different 'walks' of life at HHS.

Being in style these days does not mean dressing like someone else. Originality is most successful in fashion of the '90s. As one looks around at the many different styles, influences of the '60's and '70's are obvious. Bell-bottoms and 'mod' colors are the rage. Hairstyles can take many different shapes and involve various techniques, such as straightening, curling, braiding, or complete shaving. Baggy or greatly oversized jeans still appear to be the most popular clothing item for both boys and girls. When asked about fashion, Brian Worley commented, "Fashion describes the way you feel. If you dress a certain way, people can understand you better." Marquita Spratley said, "I don't dress up myself, but I like to see sophisticated wear on some — it gives a person a whole new look. It's amazing what a sophisticated outfit can do to a person's image." Clothes can truly show aspects of your personality and self-image, but they cannot make the person.

The flames that licked the Branch Dividian compound flared a controversy among Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms officials and Branch Dividian survivors. What started in a 51-day siege of Ranch Apocalyse ended in an inferno that consumed 86 Branch Dividians, including 17 children.

The Branch Dividians, founded and under the leadership of David Koresh, banded together in an isolated compound just outside Waco, Texas. ATF officials quickly responded after reports of a weapons arsenal in the compound were rumored. The ATF swarmed Ranch Apocalypse in an initial assault designed to quickly gain control of the compound, but the ATF members were totally surprised. They met resistance from heavily fortified bunkers and automatic weapons. ATF officials retreated: 4 ATF officials and 6 Branch Dividians died in the shootout.

After a 51-day siege of the compound, another government assault was planned. ATF and FBI agents were to drive tanks specially fitted with tear-gas injecting booms to drive the Dividians out. After eighteen bottles of tear gas had been injected into the compound in three separate "gassings," FBI agents began to see smoke. Surprised at first, the agents spotted escaping Branch Dividians. Almost immediately, four separate fires ignited, to the horror of the onlooking FBI agents and the stream of escaping cult members stopped. What started in siege ended in tragedy — in the end, 34 Branch Dividians died, including founder David Koresh and his second-in-command, Steve Schneider.

LOCAL EVENTS

On Friday, August 6, 1993, Virginia's deadliest tornado in more than thirty years struck Petersburg and surrounding areas. It was Virginia's worst tornado since 1959, when ten people were killed in an Albemarle County storm. The tornado hit the historic High Street area in Petersburg first, demolishing buildings that had survived the Civil War. It then moved in a northeasterly path through Colonial Heights, destroying Wal-Mart by cutting a fifty-foot-wide path through the store. Adjacent businesses, such as K-Mart and Dry Cleaner were also damaged. Hopewell was the storm's next target. The tornado damaged homes along a four-block area of Mansion Hills, and then struck the Riverside Apartments. The apartment buildings were so heavily damaged that they could not be opened to tenants until March of 1994. Fortunately for the storm victims, local businesses and organizations such as Goodwill and United Way donated furniture, clothing, and food staples to needy families.

THE VOTES ARE IN!

After grueling political races on the state and local level, only the strong survived. The Republicans won a major victory by campaigning aggressively against Mary Sue Terry. Debates steamed with hot issues on everyone's mind: abortion, gun control, and parole reform. After the votes were counted, the victors were:

-Governor George Allen
-Lieutenant Governor Donald Beyer
-Attorney General Jim Gilmore
-Sheriff Victor Fuzy
-Clerk of Court Marie Roeder
-Treasurer Gerald Stokes
-Commissioner of Revenue Dianna Robbins
-District Attorney Jack Gould
-Delegate Riley Ingram

For many years the legend of the Evergreen Motel has run through Hopewell High. People who have visited the motel claimed they had seen and heard "ghosts" or had some other unusual and unexplainable experience. Many witnesses claim the motel is haunted by victims of a bus crash. A large charter bus was driving across the bridge when it skidded on a patch of ice, broke through the heavy guardrail, and plummeted into the icy waters of the Appomattox River on a cold December morning, 1935. The driver was crushed behind the wheel and all men, women, and children aboard the bus drowned before rescue attempts could be made. An article about this incident appeared in a 1985 issue of Good Housekeeping.

California's earthquake struck at 4:30 A.M. on Monday, January 17, 1994. It caused $500 million worth of freeway damage and $700 million in damage to schools. More than one thousand aftershocks have occurred, adding to damage totals. President Clinton and Congress pledged $41 million for immediate highway repair and $639 million in low-interest, small business loans. Insurance companies and private funds will have to make up the remainder. Once again, California is striving to recover form a monumental disaster.

Many a night the students of Hopewell High have told the story of Rosemary's Baby — the grieving mother who loses her child to a killer. Today students and residents of Hopewell are convinced she haunts a bridge on Snake Road. The ritual usually begins a little after midnight. As the story goes someone must scream, "I killed your baby, I killed your baby, I killed your baby," and Rosemary will appear. Students who have tried it have often insisted their cars would not start afterwards.

WHAT DOES THE CLASS OF 1994

After many years of study, hard work, laughter, and tears the class of 1994 finally reach the moment each of them has waited for — graduation. Some are native born of Hopewell, others are from surrounding cities, states, and even countries. They have worked to achieve greatness, and some believe that they have succeeded. With the hope of success, each plan to go into separate directions. Some will stay in Hopewell, some will leave, and some will return after years away. But all have the same dream: to be happy and achieve their own type of happiness. After all their work, all will be able to look back at their present home: Hopewell High.

XOXOXOXO

Dear Students of Hopewell High School,

People often wonder what it takes to put together the book you are now holding in your hands. There is not just one factor that can do it, but a combination of dedication and determination. We have spent countless hours after school and even more at home to meet the deadlines that would put this book in your hands. We believe the work was worth it.

As the editor, I am grateful to many people for all the help they gave me. I wish to thank the entire yearbook staff as well as our new yearbook advisor, Miss Longerbeam, for their support and dedicated effort; it has been a learning experience for all of us.

We strived to make a book that everyone could enjoy by capturing the special moment as well as the every day. We apologize for any errors and/or inconveniences you may have had to go through due to the hardships we have had to endure to make this possible and promise to strive even harder in the next year. There is always room for improvement.

Thank you for your support and cooperation, we wish you the best of luck in the future to come.

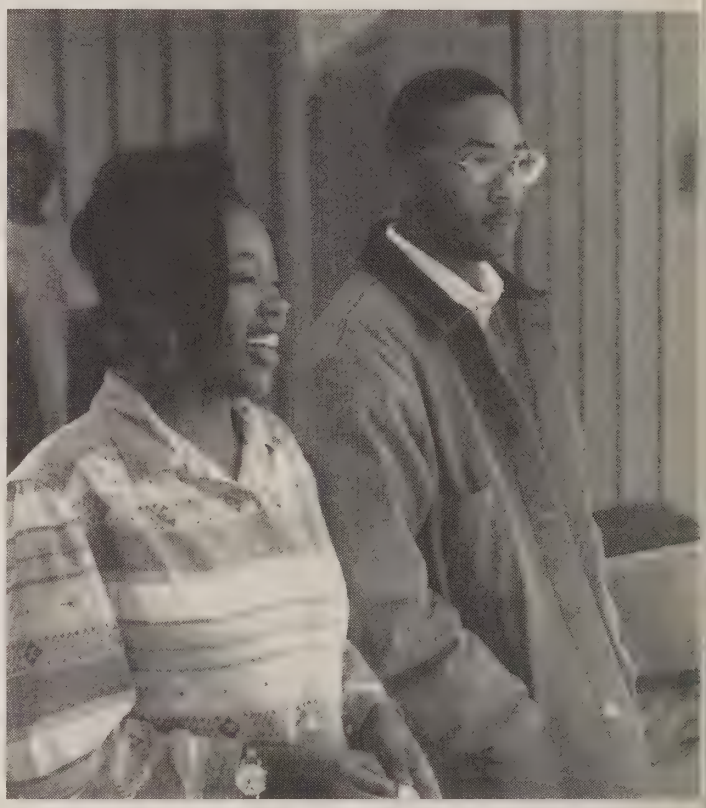
Stepping Ahead On The

Tisha Lane and Chioke Woodley enjoy a brief chat between classes.



As this year comes to an end, the Kaleidoscope Yearbook staff has given their all to produce a yearbook that the students, the faculty and they could be proud of. We feel that we have accomplished just that. This year the staff took a "step ahead" in a new direction under the supervision and support of Miss Longerbeam.

Whether it be in the classroom, out in the community, or on the playing field, the faculty and students of HHS always seems to make their presence known. As the senior class "steps ahead" in many different directions, Hopewell High School will also take a "step ahead" with class and dignity, showing their Blue Devil pride.

Now, as we all "step ahead" towards new horizons, do not fear reflections. Neither try to forget, nor let your memories slip through your hands. All you know is based upon your past. If you are to once again find unity and friendship, you must reflect. Reflect and grasp the meaning of the force which binds us together. Reflect and know yourself as you stand surrounded by your peers. "Step Ahead" but do not forget the past. The school year of '93-'94 will never be forgotten.

One Step At A Time

A Letter From the Editor

Everyone needs a helping hand and the yearbook staff is no exception. There are several people to whom we owe several big "thank you's."

My first thank you goes to our advisor, Ms. Genevieve Longerbeam. She gave up much time to help us put together the yearbook and gave us the freedom to speak our minds. Mrs. Rhonda Jones always let the staff use the phone, both during and after school. Mr. Bailey or Donna Howlett always made copies when we needed them.

I would like to thank Mr. Marvin Jones for letting us use his computers when we were close to meeting a deadline. He was always willing to go the extra mile for us. Mrs. Karen Rhodes also helped by providing us with a strong foundation from last year to base this year on. Thank you to our Taylor representative Dan Defalco for keeping us on track and always coming to Hopewell when we needed him.

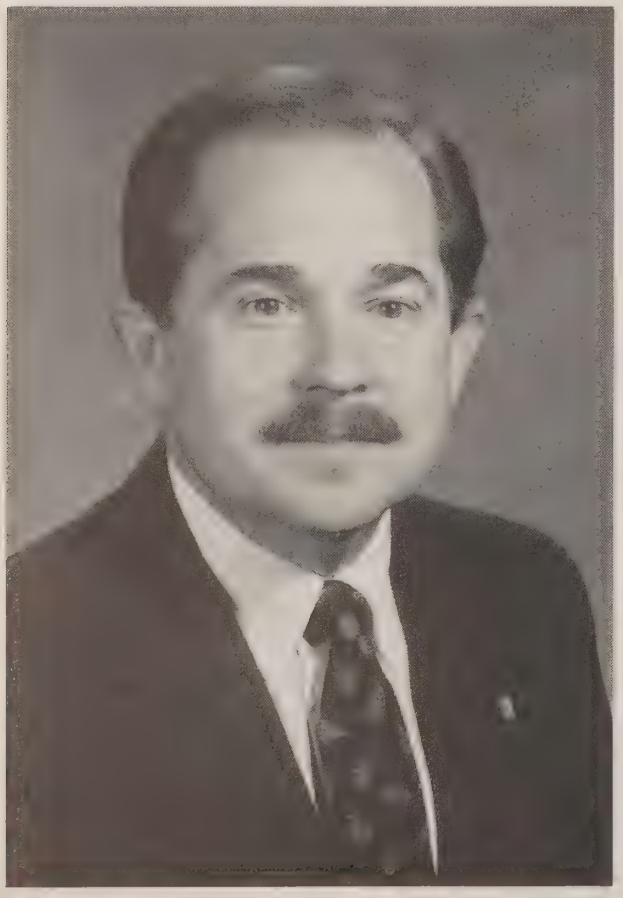
Finally, our biggest thank you goes to the student body of Hopewell. Publishing the yearbook would not have been possible without you!

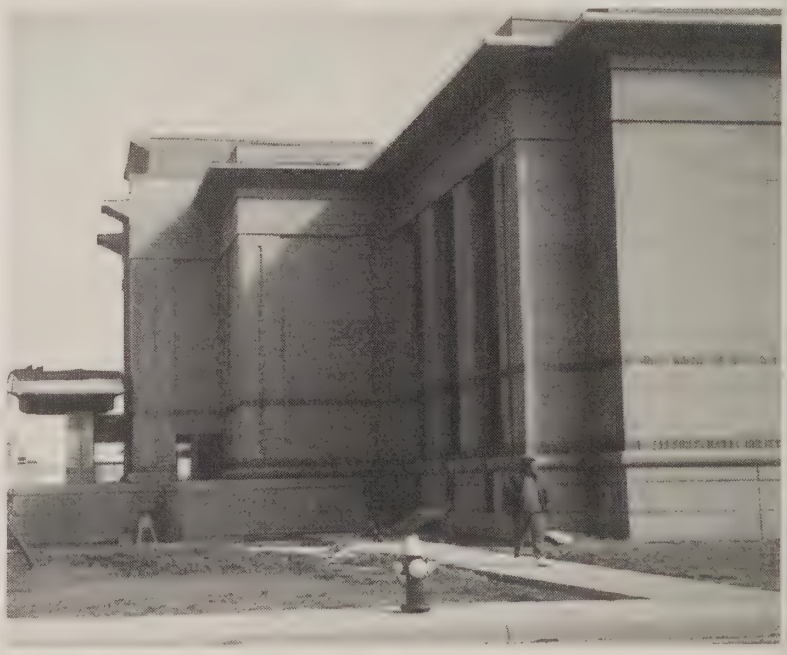
— Joanne Shippee

A Message from the Adviser

Many thanks to the faculty, staff, and students of Hopewell High School for making my first year as adviser a bearable one. The first year is always difficult, but that difficulty was compounded by circumstances beyond our control, most notably the absence of certain team spring sports pictures. Our contract photographer, Ron Stiers, did not forward these pictures to us and then declared bankruptcy, so the negatives were never developed. Nevertheless, I hope that this unfortunate happening will not prevent you from enjoying this publication now and in the years to come.

Sincerely,
G. E. Longerbeam





More steps into the future include Dr. David Stuckwisch, superintendent, and the recently completed courthouse.
